Read the following paper:—

Proceedings of the Government of India in the Department of Finance and Commerce (Accounts, Finance, &c.), dated Simla, 21st May 1881, No. 698 [Current No. 1315].

Read the following correspondence between the Secretary of State and the Government of India regarding the pay of Puisne Judges to be appointed in future to the several High Courts in India:—

From Secretary of State, No. 46, Financial, dated 12th February 1880.
To Secretary of State, No. 365, Financial, dated 9th November 1880.
From Secretary of State, No. 7, Judicial, dated 3rd February 1881.

RESOLUTION.—The Secretary of State for India in Council has ruled that an officer appointed after this date to be Puisne Judge of a High Court, including the High Court at Calcutta, shall receive pay as follows, a Judge who is a member of the Covenanted Civil Service being exempted from the contribution of four per centum on his salary on account of annuity:—

(a) if he is not a Native of India, or if, being a Native of India, he is a member of the Covenanted Civil Service appointed by the Secretary of State after competitive examination in England,	Rs. 3,600 a-month.
(b) if he is a Native of India, but not a member of the Covenanted Civil Service appointed by the Secretary of State after competitive examination in England,	Rs. 2,400 = two-thirds of the pay fixed for a Judge who is not a Native of India.

2. The pay thus fixed for a Native Judge bears the same relation to the pay of a Judge who is not a Native of India, as the pay of a Native of India appointed to an office in the Covenanted Civil Service, in accordance with the Rules framed under Section 6, Act XXXIII Vic., Cap. 3, bears to that of the rest of the Covenanted Civil Servants; that is, it is sixty-four per centum of what would be the gross pay of a Puisne Judge, if he were a Covenanted Civil Servant appointed after competitive examination in England, and had to make the contribution of four per centum (Section 10, Pay and Acting Allowance Code).

3. The present Rules regarding Leave and Pension will, with the sanction of the Secretary of State, be altered in respect of Judges of High Courts who are Natives of India appointed after this date. Any appointment to the office of Native Judge made after this date will be upon the condition that the present Rules regarding Leave and Pension will not apply to any person so appointed. New Rules are under consideration, and will be published as early as possible. Any leave which a Native Judge appointed after this date may require intermediately must be granted under special arrangements.

Ordered, that this Resolution be communicated to—the Governments of Madras, Bombay, and the North-Western Provinces and Oudh;

the Comptroller-General, and the Accountants-General, Bengal, Madras, Bombay, and North-Western Provinces and Oudh.
