The Superintendent of Stationery,

(Telegram) dated 22d August 81.

FOR ORDERS.

I think that the answer is the use of local Stores for Stationery for the Government of India in private hands — We certainly take the matter up as soon as possible — I don't think any of the things in the indent can at present be

In the draft endorsed on the enclosure, the Superintendent's statement that none of the stores can be procured locally has been accepted, but it is submitted that the Government of India will be likely to demur to this; they have of late been been issuing stringent orders on the subject of the purchase, wherever possible, of local stores; and several of the articles in the indent should be procurable in India.
