Read the following paper:—

Proceedings of the Government of India in the Department of Finance and Commerce, (Accounts and Finance—Stores), dated Simla, 14th September 1881, No. 2979 [Current No. 2616].

Read again—

Financial Resolution, No. 1923, dated 22nd July 1881, directing that certain articles entered in the Bengal Stationery Indent for 1882-83 should be struck out of the indent and the articles obtained of Indian manufacture.

Read also—

Letter from the Superintendent of Stationery, Calcutta, No. 2441, dated 3rd August 1881, intimating that machine blankets which were struck out of his indent cannot be obtained of Indian manufacture.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor-General in Council has ascertained that, in addition to the articles mentioned in the Resolution above cited (published in the Gazette of India of the 23rd July 1881), colour slabs and colour saucers are made at the Raneegunge Pottery belonging to Messrs. Burn and Co. The material is highly glazed, and takes colours freely without absorbing them. The only practical difference between these goods and those of English manufacture is that the latter are purely white, while the Indian-made articles, owing to the presence of iron in the clay, is of a cream colour. This difference is quite immaterial for useful purposes, and the locally-made article should be substituted for imported colour slabs and saucers if they can be made for a price not higher than that of the English-made articles laid down in Calcutta. The number indented for was 400 colour slabs at 9d. each and 700 saucers at $\frac{3}{4}$ d. each.

2. It is understood that the Madras School of Arts is also prepared to make these articles.

3. Machine blankets not being at present procurable of Indian manufacture, a requisition will be made for their supply from England.

Ordered that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to the Government of Bengal and to the other Local Governments and Administrations for information and guidance.

Ordered, also, that the Resolution be published in the Gazette of India.
