GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

2nd December 1881, No. 2361.

Allowances.

Read the following paper :—

From H. B. GRIGG, Esq., M.A., Director of Public Instruction, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 22nd November 1881, No. 5026 [Current No. 3262].

The Central School of Narsapur was established in 1852 by Mr. G. N. Taylor, Sub-Collector of the Godavari District, and after a flourishing existence commenced a decline which culminated in 1875. As the school was an important one and the causes of its decline were remediable, Colonel Macdonald changed the Head Master and took other steps towards restoring the institution to the position it had once held.

2. The Inspector of Schools, First Division, visited it recently, and the following is an extract from his report :—

“ The progress made in the different schools under the charge of the present Head Master since he took charge in 1879 is remarkable. The attendance in 1879 and in the present year is contrasted below :—

|                           | 1879. | 1881.                |

|                           | 120   | 281                  |

The improvement has not only been in numbers but in efficiency. The general results of my examination this year may be considered creditable. The present is my third inspection of the school, and each year I have noticed a marked improvement in the different classes. The present Head Master was specially selected by Colonel Macdonald and sent up from the south with the object of resuscitating the school from its declining condition. He has had to contend with classes which in Mr. Bradshaw's words were “ the embodiment of every possible defect.” That he has succeeded in his task the above results amply prove. As a reward for his successful labors and as an encouragement to others I should be glad if you would raise his pay to the maximum, viz., Rs. 120. I think that successful work such as his deserves reward. In the matter of pay he seems to have been hardly dealt with. In 1879 the salary of the post was reduced from a maximum of Rs. 150 to Rs. 120, in order to admit of the entertainment of an additional master in the Berhampore College.”

The salary of the Headmastership to future incumbents is to be Rs. 90, rising by biennial increments of Rs. 6 to Rs. 120; but the present Head Master having been in charge prior to this arrangement was in receipt of a salary of Rs. 100 which was continued to him with increments up to Rs. 120. Under ordinary circumstances he would be entitled to his first increment in 1883, or a salary of Rs. 102. I am desirous, however, of bestowing upon him a substantial mark of appreciation of his excellent services. I have therefore the honor to request that, under Section 38, Clause (b), of the Pay and Acting Allowance Code, I be permitted to raise his salary from

Rs. 100 to Rs. 108, an amount to which he would not otherwise be entitled until 1886 and to thereafter give him the remaining biennial increments as they fall due, the period for the necessary service dating from this sanction.

ORDER THEREON, 2nd December 1881, No. 2361.
The proposal of the Director of Public Instruction is sanctioned.

Allowances.—The proposal of the Director of Public Instruction for increasing the pay of the Head Master of the Central School, Narsapur, sanctioned.

I think that successful work such as his deserves reward.

In the matter of pay he seems to have been hardly dealt with. In 1879 the salary of the post was reduced from a maximum of Rs. 150 to Rs. 120, in order to admit of the entertainment of an additional master in the Berhampore College.

The Salary of the Headmaster-ship to future incumbents is to be Rs. 90, rising by bi-ennial increments of Rs. 6 to Rs. 120; but the present Headmaster having been in charge prior to this arrangement, was in receipt of a salary of Rs. 100 which was continued to him with increments up to Rs. 120. Under ordinary circumstances he would be entitled to his first increment in 1883 or a salary of Rs. 102. I am desirous, however, of bestowing bestowing upon him a substantial mark of appreciation of his excellent services. I have — therefore the honor to request that under section 38 clause (b) of the Pay and Acting Allowance Code I be permitted to raise his salary from Rs. 100 to Rs. 108, an amount to which he would not otherwise be entitled until 1886 and to thereafter give him the remaining biennial increments as they fall due, the period for the necessary service dating from this sanction.

I have the honor to be,

"A proposal to grant an increment of propriety pay in advance of the due date should always be sanctioned with especial jealousy: it is contrary to the principle of propriety pay to grant an increment before it is due, & such a grant should not be recommended or sanctioned except under circumstances

The Govt. regret their inability to comply with the present request.

Circ.

Sanction the proposal
of the S.D. Mr. M.

The school was in bad order.
This school master was specially selected by the late Director to get it into good order
again, & he has succeeded remarkably well. But he was doubtless selected as a good & energetic master, & the result tho' gratifying is just what was anticipated.
It is submitted that the proposal
looked at jealously, is not one to be sanctioned. Moreover are friends of general policy, it is possible - & had in very exceptional circumstances - to specially favour a man for simply being his best, it must create resentment among his fellows who may have had the will tho' not the opportunity to do what he did.
