Major Hobart has presented for payment a bill calculated on the old scale, but this Office has only passed him mileage rates pending a reply to this reference.—

lar of mileage rates

According to paragraph 1 of Mr.
Simkinson's letter of the 12th March, the personal allowances of officers
above the grade of clerk are to be granted at mileage rates. It may be inferred from paragraph 2 of enclosure

to

to the same letter that officers whose salaries exceed Rs 1500 per mensem may charge mileage rates for their wives and families, subject to the limit as to the number of children laid down in Resolution N: 968 of 2^d March 81.

Major Nabart not being married will be entitled to ordinary mileage rates as marginally noted above.

The Resolutions do not contain any information in regard to the travelling allowance.

Submitted that the inference is not borne out by the Resolutions quoted - which refers solely to clerks.

Rule (a) in Resolution 1174 d/12 March 1881 distinctly says that "an officer above the grade of Clerk, whose salary does not exceed Rs 1500, may charge for his wife &c. Obviously better paid officers cannot draw travelling allowances for families. See also Resolution in G.O. 18 Nov 1880 No 1671 - Publ. The intention of the Govt of India seems plain.

With reference to the above I should add that the view of the rule is objected to by the P.W. as well as the Public Dept. on the ground that para 3 of G.O. 2, letter d/12 March (in G.O. 19/3/81 No 470) refers to families of officers of all grades and that the concluding sentence in para 2 of India Resolution No 1174 d/12/3 enables all officers to charge for their families.

also in these rules. Possibly it may have meant that the allowances therein specified should be adjusted comparatively with a view to the respective distances of Simla from Calcutta. & P.W. from Madras. & this I think has once been suggested by G.D. (or W. Chapman) & this for & has been some discussion. At present I think our

Established rules allow Rs. 350. for P.W. Officers instead of Rs. 450 allowed by the Simla Rules. As Major Nabart comes into that Class. his I consider entitled to of members of Council. Is it assumed that they also are to be at mileage rates - of proposed rule XIV appended to letter to the Government of India, N: 232, 8th February 1880?

Submitted that Members of Council concerned. Para 1 of Mr. Dinkar's letter in G.O. 19 March 1881. No 470 Financial i.e. they draw mileage rates.

India said in reply to our letter No 232 that the Simla Rules were to be adopted here. The rules then being those recorded in G.O. 17 March 1880 No 421 Public.

The modifications which have been since made in the Rules do not affect officials drawing over Rs. 1500 per mensem.
