With reference to the letter from the Chief Secretary to your Government (Financial Department), of the 8th February last, No. 235, forwarding an amended leave and pay certificate for Mr. A. J. Stuart of the Madras Civil Service, I have to acquaint you that in issuing Mr. Stuart's absentee allowance to the last quarter day, an overpayment was made in the Accountant-General's Department of this office of the sum of £200-16-10, which would have been avoided if the allowances admissible to Mr. Stuart, in the event of his leave on private affairs being converted into furlough on medical certificate, had been stated in the 12th column of his original leave and pay certificate.

2. Having regard to the somewhat exceptional circumstances of Mr. Stuart's case, and to the representations which he has made on the subject, I have decided to allow him to receive absentee allowance, at the rate of Rs. 400 per mensem, from the 26th December last to the date of the expiration of his present leave, viz., the 27th August next, the recovery of the overpayment of £200-16-10 being deferred until he has ceased to be on leave in this country.
