Dated 23.1.95
Recd. 28/1

Subject.
Giving the ^{market} rate of exchange (i.e. of the rupee) with refce to which all allowances will be calculated & informing that all Asst. Secy.
& Comptrollers will be instructed to adopt this rate in the 2nd vol.
of the Budget notes.

For orders

Submitted that the following tele-gram may be despatched to the Government of India-

47x Your a-377 23rd. Exchange Compensation Allowance. Revised rate will ^{should not more than} add about 2 lakhs to [the] budget [of] Provincial charges forwarded with [Mr.] Gibson's letter [of] 18th
No 46. This may ^{it is thought to} easily be met from increased receipts under Provincial heads of Revenue Please do not reduce grants for next year under any heads without previously consult-ing this Government!'

At 1s-2d the provision for Exchange
Compensation Allowance for 1895-96 stands at 5.46 lakhs. At 1s-1d ^{it} would be raised to 7.35 lakhs, or by 1.89. Independently of the reserve of 1.26 in the closing balance [part of which will be absorbed by the sur-render to India on account of savings in the Military Secretariat], there should be enhanced receipts under the following heads, ^{which} show a steady progressive increase and under which next year's revenues may be expected to at least equal ~~to~~ the A.G.'s revised estimate of the current year-

VIZ.;

For. This letter may go, but before despatching hand over to the Asst. Secy.
for if he has any objection

29/1/95

1-2d represents $\frac{1}{2}$ of salary
1-1d - $\frac{5}{26}$ of salary

$$\frac{5.46 \times 7 \times 5}{26} = \frac{191.1}{26} = 7.35$$

	Budget 95/6	Revised 94/95	Increase hoped for
IV Stamps	57.00	57.45	.45
VII Assess ed taxes	10.45	10.75	.30
IX Forest	9.35	9.75	.40
XVIB. Jails	3.72	3.90	.18
		1.33

On the other hand, savings on ordinary expenditure are sure to amount to more than 5 lakhs-e.g.

3 Land Revenue	.50
5. Salt	.50
11. Forest	.50
20. Police	.50
45. Municipal and local works	1.00
	3.00

If the G. of I. is not asked to consult this Govt. before reducing grants it may knock out the provisions for Railway Police & other schemes in the budget. It is a pity the G. of I. fixed so arbitrary a rate as 1st 2^d last August.

My dear Rawlins

Do you see any objection to the following telegram being despatched to India, regarding calculation of Exchange & compensation allowance at 18.1 d for next year.

"your $\frac{a}{377}$ 23rd. Exchange & compensation Allowance.

Revised rate should not add more than 2 lakhs to budget Provincial charges forwarded with Gibson's letter 18th Nov 46. This may it is thought be easily met from increased receipts under Provincial heads of Revenue. Please do not reduce grants for next year under any heads without previously consulting this this Government".

Independently of Land Revenue, the receipts under stamps, assessed taxes, Forest, Gails &c ought to be much higher than in the budget. while savings are sure to occur
under Land Revenue,
Salt, Forest, Police,
Municipal works &c

Yours sincerely.
