Dated Madras, 18 January 1895.

SIR,

The Subregistry office at Tennadivei in the Tinnevely district is held in the old Taluk Entcherry ^{Building} near the local Police Station. The District Registrar recommends the employment of a nightwatchman and sweeper for the Subregistry office, as the Police staff cannot undertake to guard it during nights. When I inspected the office in November last, I found that the employment of a nightwatchman was absolutely necessary. I have accordingly the honor to request that the Government may be pleased to sanction the employment of a nightwatchman and sweeper on a salary of Rs 5 per mensem for the Subregistry office. The usual proposition statement specifying the extra charge imposed on the State is is submitted for the sanction of Government.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
