SIR,

Enclosures.

Since the closing of the Cuddapah District Jail and the opening of a Subsidiary Jail at Cuddapah on the 1st September, a toty has been entertained by the Magistrate in charge of the Subjail and has been paid 3a. per diem. The District Magistrate now reports that the man has agreed to accept a monthly payment of R³ 4/2 for cleaning the Subjail latrine and as this is less than the Municipal charge (R⁵ 5/- per mensem) for the same work would be, he requests that the retention of the toty may be sanctioned. This appears to be necessary and the usual proposition statements in duplicate, as well as the statement prescribed by article 158 of the Civil Account Code Volume I are accordingly submitted for the sanction of Government.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

A. G. Cardew
Inspector-General of Prisons
