

of the asylum. The three on duty on the buildings on the southern half of the asylum have simply their locale in the hospital enclosure from whence they start on their rounds to the buildings in the noisy enclosure, the Hospital proper and the range of superior cottages and general blocks beyond and outside the hospital limits. The Superintendent informs me that the sphere of duty of these particular night watchmen is a very important one including as it does the supervision of the night staff proper on duty at the hospital and the inspection of rooms tenanted by the superior class of inmates who, from frequent exhibition of a proclivity to suicide, require careful watching. The work of these night watchmen is checked by means of Dent's tell tale clocks and their services appear to me to be indispensable. I was misled by a former acting Superintendent into believing they could be dispensed with.

3. The services of the two lascars have been dispensed with.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
