EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT:

Bombay Castle, 23rd November 1895:

FROM

J. DE C. ATKINS, ESQR, I. C. S.,
SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,
EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT,
BOMBAY;

TO

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Madras.

SIR,

With reference to your letter No. R 690, dated 29th July 1895, I am directed to state that this Government have not entered into any contract with Messrs H. S. King and Company, London, for the supply of publications. It appears however that the Controller of Military Accounts, Bombay Command, has entered into a contract for the supply of books viz to the Military Department, Bombay Command, for 3 years from the 1st April last. A copy of your letter has therefore been forwarded to that officer in view to his supplying the information required direct to the Government of Madras.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. DE C. ATKINS

Secretary to Government.

Type-writer Head-Quarters, India,

BOMBAY, CALCUTTA & MADRAS.

Dictated.

The Private Secretary

To His Excellency the Governor of Madras,

M A D R A S.

168, Popham's Broadway,
Madras, 15th. November, 1895.

Dear Sir,

We have just started our Madras Branch Office, next to the Madras Bank Premises, but we start work in this city from the 1st proximo.

The writer who is here for a week, shall be happy to call upon you personally if you will want him for anything re: the "Williams" typewriter now in use with you. He will also bring with him to show you one of the latest model Hammond typewriter which is considered by the American Typewriting world as the best typewriter machine.

We do not wish you to purchase one, but merely wish to show it to you, as it may lead to our making business with the other Government Departments should they think at some future date of introducing typewriting in their offices.

Awaiting your esteemed reply at your earliest convenience,

We beg to remain Sir,

Your most obedient servants,

BOMBAY TYPE-WRITING COMPANY,

Managing Propr.
