Sir.

We have the honour to state with Reference to the order for four copies of "Hons Customs Year book" for the use of Your office, that on receipt of the order we endeavoured to obtain copies for the Year 1893, but as a sufficient number is printed only to meet the number ordered, without any Extra copies for Subsequent orders, we were quite unable to get any for

for your use. At the time of our application we regretted the publisher to reserve 4 copies for 1894 for us, but to our great disappointment he has sold all the copies he had. We have succeeded, however, by advertising to find four copies, one of which ~~one of them~~ is the complete edition with warehousing Regulations, and the other three are of the smaller editions, which are issued under the circumstances will serve for this year. We have impressed upon the publisher the necessity of reserving four copies of the Complete book for 1895 for us, and hence for it they will be sent out to you without fail every year as they appear.

Dated 23rd November, 1895.

No. 4998 Mis.

Read G. O. R. No. 1032, Financial, dated 31st October 1895.

Resolution.

With reference to the G.O. read above, the Board beg leave to report that sanction was accorded in G.O. Mis No 2355, Revenue, dated 27th June 1893, for the supply of four copies of "Hart's Customs Year book" annually. As 4 copies of the larger edition for 1894 were not available for supply (vide copy of letter dated 7th July 1894 from Messrs. Baker and Company), one copy of

of the Larger edition and 3 copies of the smaller edition for that year were supplied by them. For the current year, however, all the 4 copies supplied were of the Larger edition.
The latter is the complete edition with warehousing regulations, and is the one required by the Board.
