HEAD OFFICE THE BOMBAY TYPE-WRITING CO.

Type-writer Head-Quarters, India.
BOMBAY, CALCUTTA & MADRAS.

Madras. 9th December. 1898.

The Hon. Mr. J. F. Price. C.S.I.
SECRETARIAT.
Madras.

Dear Sir,

For the convenience of our large Madras Presidency clientelle, we have opened a Branch House in this city at 168, Popham's Broadway, near the Madras Bank. Our office contains all the leading typewriters in the New York and London markets.

With the purchasers of our typewriters, we will deal on the same lines as the Head Office (The Bombay Typewriting Co) viz:
(a) We will teach your clerk typewriting (at our offices upon machine bought) and make him fairly proficient in a week,
(b) We will teach Shorthand "SWIFTOGRAPH" in an hour and make him able to take down commercial letters in a week.
(c) We will teach them to duplicate 6 to 1000 copies at a time.

The value of typewriting has been depreciated in this Presidency for want of professional training, but we are prepared to convince you that any clerk trained under us, would write twice as fast as handwriting upon any typewriter worth Rs.300 to Rs.500 or as fast as handwriting on a typewriter worth Rs.150 to Rs.250.

We have the patronage of the Government of India Office His Excellency the Governor of Bombay. The Lt Gov of N.W.P. The Civil Service. The Army and Indian Marine.

We therefore beg that should you intend using a typewriter you will not fail to accord us your patronage.

Yours faithfully,

Augustus Wallis
Secy. Madras Branch.

N.B. We should be pleased to call upon you with a typewriter man on any day you may be pleased to appoint.
