The Secretary
Financial Department
Madras Government.

Sir;

Referring to your official letter dated 25th August 1893 I beg to ask the Department to kindly give effect to its promise with respect to donations of books to this Oriental Library. The Bombay Government is regularly supplying us with its ~~own~~ oriental publications; and it is respectfully submitted that the Government of Madras may be very reasonably asked to give at least this slight patronage to a local institution of learning whose collection of valuable books is fast becoming a credit to the Presidency.

NOTE FOR THE ORDERS

The Trustees of the Asyur (Theosophical) Library in their letter dated 25th August 1893, having applied for donations of Oriental works, a part of money in aid of that institution, the Govt. in its order of 29th September 1893, No. 960, noted the request for donations of works but declined to undertake that for a money grant.

The Trustees have now come up with the request that the promise made in the above quoted order may be given effect to.

The only books received in the Library of the nature of Oriental works since the issue of the order, are described in the following table with some particulars as to their receipt

Only one copy of etc. I was received from the India office. With that exception, the other publications were purchased by Govt. and if any of them were supplied to the Adyar Library, it would be tantamount to giving it a money grant. Compliance with the order has, therefore, hitherto been impracticable.

It is submitted that the Trustees
