CURRENT No. 227

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Land Revenue),

Dated 12th January 1895.

Forest No. 29. Mis. Routine.

READ the following letter from E. P. Robert Esquire, Com-
-rator of Forests, central circle, dated 22nd December 1894, No. 1729.

The Accountant General, having ordered, that under article 254 of the Civil Service Regu-lations without the special sanction of Government I am entitled to my pay and allowance for Sunday the 2nd December, I have the honor to solicit the Board will be pleased to obtain the special sanction of Government.
The circumstances are the following:—

The 3 months privilege have granted to me
expired on Saturday night, the 1st December.
I returned to Madras by steamer at day light on the 2nd instant, prepared to resume charge of office that morning but could not do so as it was Sunday. The Accountant General's objection is based upon the views he takes of the privilege.

FOR ORDERS.

The paper does not give complete information but the case seems to stand as follows:-

Mr. Popert, Conservator of Forests 1st Grade, was granted 3 months privilege leave with effect from the 31st August. He appears to have availed himself of the leave from the 2nd September. Mr. Peet was appointed to act ^{for him in the Central} as Conservator of Forests, 1st Grade. Mr. Popert returned to Madras on the morning of the 2nd December but as it was Sunday was unable to assume charge.

It is for Govt, under § 254 to decide whether Mr. Popert or Mr. Peet should be allowed the benefit of Sunday the 2nd. Mr. Popert appears to be entitled to it.

But two officers cannot draw the pay of the same appt- for the same day.
CS.

Quite so. Mr. Peet merely loses the ap. allow for that day in article 254. His Submit is in reality untenable. My return would under any circumstances have involved the transfer of Mr. Peet to another station; no special arrangement was necessary. The Accountant General's objection is tantamount to fixing Mr. Peet's pay and allowances, because the 2nd of December happened to fall on a Sunday.

Resolution.

Submitted through the Accountant General for the favorable consideration of Government.
