Re the domicile of M^r Tillard.

- Opinion -

1. Upon entering the Service of the Honorable East India Company, S^t Tillard acquired an Indian domicile. That domicile was not affected by Act 21 and 22 Vict. C. 106, or the Indian Succession Act, 1865, or by the substitution of a Royal Commission for that granted by the Commander in Chief of the Company's Forces.
2. In 1864, S^t Tillard was appointed as a Lieutenant of a Company of gentleman Cadets attached to the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich. By accepting this Commission, he abandoned his Indian and re-acquired his English domicile.
3. His son was born in England in 1866, and his domicile was therefore English.
