GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

THE Chief Secretary to Government, Financial Department.

SIR,

With reference to para 2 of Government order No 1018, dated the 22nd of November 1894, Financial, I have the honour to state that in accordance with Notes 113 and 115, Appendix P of the Civil Account code, the cost of Police entertained as part of the District Force, though for a special purpose, should be shown under the minor head "District Executive Force".

As the existing Police establishments in connection with Railways in this Presidency were entertained as part of the District Force, and as the scheme for organization of a separate "Railway Police" has not been sanctioned, there seems to be no necessity for debiting the cost to the separate minor head "Railway Police".

2. I have accordingly transferred the ch- during the current year to "District Executive Force". The recoveries, as hitherto, will be credited to "Public Departments, Private Companies and Persons".

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

your most obedient servt.,

M. Hammick
Accountant General.

SIR,

Enclosures.

(herewith returned)

With reference to endorsement 2530 dated 20th December 1894 on Accountant General's letter, dated 13th December 1894 No 3751, I have the honor to say that I have no objection to the Accountant General's proposal being carried out provided that it makes no difference as regards recoveries.

2. The Accountant General refers to notes 113 and 115 of Appendix P, Civil Account Code, Volume II, and states that in accordance with these notes the cost of Police though maintained for a special purpose should be shewn under the minor head "District Executive Force".

3. In note 16 appendix P of the Code Railway Police are specially mentioned and it is there laid down what portion of cost of Police guards supplied to Railway Companies should be recovered from the Companies and in what cases.

4. For the purpose of effecting recoveries from the Railway Companies and for adjustment of such recoveries it would seem better that the charges should as heretofore be shown under head "Railway Police" and I do not see myself that any advantage is gained by including them with the cost of District Force.
The Accountant General, however, states truly that Police guards supplied to the Railway Companies were entertained as part of the District Force and they are of course under the control of the district officers and not a separate force.

5. There is also a separate head for Railway Police under receipts. Vide
No 41, Appendix P, Civil Account Code. and recoveries are made on account of guards supplied to certain Railway Companies and they should, I should say, be credited to the head.

6. If the Accountant General, however, thinks that it is only in those cases where there is a regular separate Railway police that credits and debits should be made to the minor head Railway police, I have no objection to raise, provided the recoveries are properly made.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedt. Servt.
W. W. W. W.
Inspector Genl of Police.

The Government agrees with the Inspector General in considering that the Railway police, which is now entertained as a part of the general scheme and the cost of which is recovered in certain proportions from the Railways, should not be mixed up with the ordinary District executive force which is concerned with law and order only and has nothing to do with watch and ward. The Accountant General should however take the order of the Govt. of India on the point.
