Department of Revenue
and Agriculture.

(Arch. and Epi.) SIR,

With reference to your letter No. 129 (Financial) dated the 7th ultimo, I am directed to say that the Government of India would have no objection to the Archaeological publications mentioned by you being supplied to the authorities of the Imperial Institute if they applied for them for their library; but the Government of India do not think it advisable that these publications should be supplied to the Editor of the Imperial Institute Journal.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Ed MacLagan
