High Court of Judicature,
Madras, 12 March 1895.

From

To
D. W. G. Lowie Esquire, Ag. Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Appellate Side, Madras.

The Honorable J. F. Pice, C.S.D., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George.

(through the Accountant General)
Honorable Sir,

I am directed to forward for the sanction of Government the accompanying proposition statement for the permanent employment of an additional copyist on the copyist esta-blishment of the Court of the Subordi-nate Judge, Nilgiris.

2. There are at present only two copyists attached to that Court but in consequence of the copying work having having greatly increased during the last two years these men have had to do so much that the average extra allowance earned by each under Rules 24 (d) and 27 of the Copyist Rules came to Rs 17 in 1893 and Rs 46-8-0 in 1894. The work has still further increased since October last and the average extra income of a copyist rose from Rs 50 in that month to Rs 76 in January last. The establishment is so small that the increase of work has caused a great deal of delay, and to prevent this, the District Judge has proposed the permanent addition of a third copyist and the High Court supports his proposal.

3. Copyists' appointments not being pensionable and their salary being more than covered by the receipts, this proposal does not involve involve any extra expenditure to the State, and I am accordingly to request that His Excellency the Governor in Council will be pleased to sanction the appointment.

I have the honor to be,

Honorable Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

D. Lowe

Ag. Registrar.
