FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From D. W. G. COWIE, Esq., Acting Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Appellate Side, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 1st April 1895, No. 943.

Rule 25 of the rules for regulating the supply and consumption of stationery and printed forms requires that the stationery indents of mofussil civil courts should be submitted to the High Court, which, after checking them, forwards them countersigned to the Superintendent of Stationery. As these indents are checked in the office of the Superintendent before being complied with, their submission to the High Court appears to be unnecessary and they might be forwarded by the District Judges and Agents to the Governor to the Superintendent direct just as in the Revenue Department Collectors' indents are forwarded.

2. This course would relieve the office of the High Court of unnecessary labour and also prevent delay. The Superintendent, in his letter, dated 11th March 1895, No. 326, copy of which is enclosed, states he has no objection to the course proposed, provided that supplemental indents are forwarded through the High Court.

3. In these circumstances I am directed to request that His Excellency the Governor in Council will be pleased to sanction the proposal and direct the modification of rules above quoted and Appendix B attached thereto. All supplemental indents would, as heretofore, be forwarded through the High Court.

ENCLOSURE.

From E. TURNER, Esq., I.C.S., Acting Superintendent of Stationery, to the Registrar, High Court, Appellate Side, dated Madras, 11th March 1895, No. 326.

In reply to your letter of the 7th instant, No. 646, I have the honour to state that I have no objection to the annual indents of the District Judges being forwarded to me direct, provided you obtain the sanction of Government for the same. All supplemental indents should be passed by you as usual, after obtaining the necessary explanation for their necessity.

ORDER—dated 11th April 1895, No. 313, Financial.

District Judges and the Agents to the Governor in Ganjám and Vizagapatam will in future forward their annual indents for stationery direct to the Superintendent of Stationery, supplemental indents being submitted, as hitherto, to the High Court.

2. The Superintendent of Stationery will note the corrections to be made in the revised edition of the Stationery rules.

Ag: Registrar.

Every letter, whether printed or in manuscript, should be doc-mented and abstracted on the back; and the abstract should state clearly the purport of the letter and not merely its title subject.

Enclosures and statements also, whether sent with letters, or merely under cover, should be numbered, docketed and abstracted.
The headings of statements should be written in full to prevent mistakes, (G. O., 8th April 1893, No. 239, Public.)

High Court of Judicature, Madras, 1st April 1895

From

D. W. G. Cowie, Esquire,
S^r. Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Appellate Side, Madras.

To

The Honorable J. F. Price, C. S. J., Chief Secretary to Government,
Fort St. George.

Honorable Sir,

Rule 25 of the Rules for regulating the supply and consumption of Stationery and Printed Forms, requires that the Stationery Indents of Provincial Civil Courts should be submitted to the High Court which after checking them, forwards them counter-signed to the Superintendent of Stationery.
As these indents are checked in the Office of the Superintendent before being complied with, their submission to the High Court appears to be unnecessary and they might be forwarded by the District Judges and Agents to the Governor to the Superintendent direct just as in the Revenue Department Collectors' indents are forwarded.

2. This Course would relieve the Office of the High Court of unnecessary labour and also prevent delay. The Superintendent, in his letter dated 11th March 1895, No. 326, Copy of which enclosed, states he has no objection to the course proposed provided that Supplemental indents are forwarded through the High Court.

3. In these circumstances I am directed to request that His Excellency the Governor in Council will be pleased to sanction the proposal and direct the modification of rules above quoted and Appendix B attached thereto.
 All Supplemental indents should as heretofore be forwarded through the High Court.

I have the honor to be,
 Honorable Sir,
 Your most obedient servant,

D. W. M.
 As. Registrar.
