OFFICE NOTE.

The Superintendent, Government Press, submits that he anticipates 8 District Manuals, Vols. I & II each, will be printed in this official year, and 26 rolls of Binder's cloth of a dark green colour will be used for the same. It is the wish of Mr. Stuart, the Editor of the District Manuals, that the whole series should be in one description and colour of cloth, and the lettering in one style of type, the whole of the Manuals being uniform in appearance, when completed.

2. In his annual address on the Secretary of State for 1895-96, the Superintendent requested the Director-General of Stores to expedite the supply of 26 rolls of this particular Binder's cloth and 7 reams of enamelled paper, dark green colour and his reply thereto is given in the margin.

3. Copies of North West Manual Vol. II, have been struck off and are ready for binding, and Vol. I will be ready within a fortnight. As it is desired that the issue of the copies of the District Manuals may be made as early as possible, the undersigned solicits that sanction may be accorded for the purchase within India, of six rolls of Binder's cloth of 19 yards each, and one ream of enamelled paper required for the ^{binding of} above District Manual. ^{and printing 1650} The cost of the above articles will be about Rs. 90/-, and will be met from the Press allotment for articles.

4. Binder's cloth and enamelled paper are of English manufacture, and similar articles like them are not

"I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 4032 dated 7th February 1895, and to inform you that the supply of the bookbinder's cloth and enamelled paper alluded to therein, will be expedited as much as possible".
