To

The Honorable J. F. Price Esq. J. J.

CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Fort St. George.

Dated Madras, 19th December 1894.

SIR,

The Subregistrar's office at Erode in the Coimbatore district having been removed from the Taluk Butcherry, where it was till recently held, to the new building constructed on the standard plan, the District Registrar has employed in anticipation of sanction a nightwatchman and sweeper on a salary of Rs 5 per mensem to guard the registration office at nights and to keep the office premises clean. The employment of a nightwatchman and sweeper for the subregistry office is absolutely necessary, as the new building to which it has been removed is at considerable distance from the Taluk Butcherry and out of the view of the Police Guard attached to the Treasury. I have accordingly the honor to request that
