Read the following paper-

From the Inspector General of Prisons d/ 3rd January 1895 No. 40, submit--ing that either the Government of India be moved to exempt the work of constructing the Jail at Cuddalore from the operation of the new para 11 of the P.W. Code Vol. II or that his alternative plan viz ^{that} the grant for the work be transferred from the P.W. to the Jail Department be adopted.

Letter from the Accountant General, Madras d/ 29th January 1895 No. 175 submitting remarks on a letter from the Inspector General of Prisons regarding the construction of the new Jail at Cuddalore.

Endorsement of the Public Works Department d/ 1st February 1895 No. 378 C transferring note by the Chief Engineer P.W.D. offering remarks generally on the Inspector General's letter regarding the construction of the new Jail at Cuddalore and agreeing to the alternative proposal contained in para. 6 of his letter.

Order d/ 4th April 1895 No. 720.

The grant for the new Cuddalore Jail should be trans-ferred by the Public Works Department to the Inspector General of Prisons who will undertake the construction of the building departmentally. It will not be possible for the Inspector General to show any profit on account of the work in his accounts but in his annual report he can of course, indicate the saving to the State which has resulted from the transfer of the work from the Public Works Department to the Jail Department.

2. Jail Code Rule 510 needs amendment to bring it into accord with amended paragraph 11 of Chapter III of Volume II of the Government of India Public Works Department Code; the Inspector General should submit a draft for approval.
