Please say what list went to the U.S. of State appended to letter of 17.1.95 No. 37 & who gave instructions as regards the list. I ^{was} ~~was~~ asked no presuming I was satisfied myself that the list contained only Europe addressees.

C.S.

I didn't notice that the list was restricted to Europe & ^{therefore} ~~the~~ whole of it was copied as attached. The paper was distributed by the last mail & so there is no chance of a good time if we send a revised list by the next mail. I suspect of these notes that "of the further words of addressees in Europe" were added the mistake couldn't have occurred.

I beg to submit that the paper was brought to me - altho I was neither the Examiner nor the turn Clerk that day - at a very late hour for examination. Agent Rathanasami Reddi who read out from the original told me that Kurathalwar who copied the letter had special instructions & I was merely to see if he had not omitted anything in the fair copy. There was nothing in the original of the list to show that only a portion & not the whole of ~~the list~~ should go. Special instructions are generally given in such cases by the drafting Clerks & the head Clerk. I am sorry I omitted under the above circumstances to notice the words "in Europe" occurring in the body

Hon. the Secy of State dated 16 January 1895, No. 1, been registered under Act XXX of 1867, but as ten copies of the previous volumes have, at its request, been supplied to the India office the same number of the present work is now forwarded together with five copies for sale with the publishers.

Note It is proposed to forward the copies by tomorrow's mail & to send this letter which quotes the despatch in the linked file afterwards.
