Note of Mr. H.C.

I have to state by way of explanation that the enclosure ref? is stated in the letter to have been sent by Book post. All currents are distributed to us by the call clerk. I thought ~~when~~ I should not mark the enclosure unless it is ~~not~~ brought to me. I have not seen the enclosure at all. If I should have rec? it I would have most certainly marked it in the Register and not on the current as the book post is generally rec? a day or two later. Further after the current once passed from ~~his~~ my hands no reference was made to me. The ~~Ref~~ First referencer has asked the call clerk if the enclosure has been rec? but the call clerk has not shown me the referencer's note. In fine as I did not see the encls. as I had no justification

I remember distinctly the circumstances connected with the book. You remembered, pointing to it, that it I didn't notice particularly what the book was, belonged to a current, & you had specifically turned your back when I passed it over to the Registry Clerk. And the two men here say that they didn't see it. But however it was seen that

The accompanying ships reached me late ~~in the~~ ^{Friday} evening when I was busy with some urgent papers. On Saturday I came to office to make search for the stationary rules. When I was searching for it - Attender Purushottam told me that there was a book amidst the intact files. I took it & found that it was the stationery rules referred to. Purushottam told me that he did not know who left it & when it was left there.

I think you registered the papers. If so why did not you ask for the enclosure? There is not even a note on the paper to show that an enclosure accompanied it. See the amount of length over your mission leaves to.
