Read—the following letter from M. HAMMICK, Esq., I.C.S., Inspector-General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 10th April 1895, No. 2121 :—

Adverting to G.O., No. 995, dated 16th November 1894, Financial Department, declaring that military pensioners in civil employ are not entitled to exchange compensation allowance, I have the honour to submit for orders whether soldiers who take their discharge and obtain appointments in this department are also precluded from drawing the allowance.

Order—dated 27th April 1895, No. 346, Financial.

The point will be referred to the Government of India.

Letter—to the Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, dated 27th April 1895, No. 347.

In continuation of my letter of the 16th November last, No. 996, I am directed to enquire whether soldiers who take their discharge from the army and obtain employment in the Police department are entitled to draw exchange compensation allowance. It appears to His Excellency the Governor in Council that such men should be treated in the same way as men who enter the Police on taking their pensions, i.e., that they should be held to have elected an Indian domicile and should not get the allowance.

(Signed) J. F. PRICE,
Chief Secretary.

From R. M. DANE, Esq., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, the 27th April 1895, No. 1952-Ex.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 996, dated the 16th November 1894, inquiring whether, for the purposes of the exchange compensation allowance rules, European and Eurasian military pensioners, who have been discharged from the army on pension, and who, without leaving India, have procured employment in civil departments, have retained their domicile of origin or have acquired an Indian domicile.

2. In reply, I am to say that though in such cases the prima facie presumption would be against a claim to exchange compensation allowance, the question of domicile can only be decided on the particular facts in each case, and no general ruling on the subject can therefore be given.

3. I am to add that, under orders recently received from the Secretary of State for India, the principles upon which exchange compensation allowance has hitherto been granted are at present under the consideration of the Government of India.
