With reference to G.O., dated 9th July 1894, No. 480, Political, I have the honour to forward herewith, for the orders of Government, the accompanying application from the Diwan of Travancore for payment of exchange compensation allowance to Lieutenant E. H. Boome, Commanding 1st Battalion, Nayar Brigade. The grounds on which Lieutenant Boome considers himself eligible for the allowance are embodied in his letter, dated 11th ultimo, to the Diwan, a copy of which is also submitted herewith.

ENCLOSURES.

From Lieutenant E. H. BOOME, Commandant, 1st Battalion, Nayar Brigade, to the Diwan of Travancore, dated Trivandrum, 11th February 1895.

I have the honour to request that you will obtain the sanction of the Madras Government to my receiving exchange compensation allowance on my pay of Rs. 500 (five hundred) per mensem on the following grounds, viz.—

1. I should draw compensation if paid by the British Government instead of the Travancore Sircar.
2. I claim to have an European domicile for the following reasons :—
 - (a) My parents were English and never lived out of England.
 - (b) I was born, brought up and educated in England and only came to India after entering the Military Service.
 - (c) My family are pure Europeans.
 - (d) It is my intention to return to England to reside on completing my military service.

From the Diwan of Travancore, to the British Resident in Travancore and Cochin, dated Trivandrum, 26th February 1895, No. 796—M.-422.

In forwarding herewith copy of a letter from Lieutenant E. H. Boome, Commanding 1st Battalion, Nayar Brigade, for exchange compensation, I have the honour to request you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of the Madras Government to the payment of the same.

2. As in the case of Colonel Brereton and Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel H. P. Esmonde White, His Highness' Government would have no objection to pay Lieutenant Boome at the British rates, should the Madras Government so decide.

From the Controller of Military Accounts, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 23rd April 1895, No. 343-G.

In returning your endorsement, No. 666, dated 28th March 1895, with its enclosures, I have the honour to state that as from the correspondence attached Lieutenant E. H. Boome, Commandant, 1st Battalion, Nayar Brigade, would appear not to be domiciled in India, he is entitled to exchange compensation allowance on the amount of his salary, the necessary deduction being made on sums, if any, remitted on account of family remittance.

2 4TH MAY 1895, Nos. 291, 292, POLITICAL.

2. No remittance has, however, been made by Lieutenant Boome through this office from 1st April 1893 up to date.
