and to express my regret for the delay that has occurred in their submission.

The audits were duly performed year by year but the Chief Superintendent who has been somewhat overworked and is responsible for them kept them by him for examination.
He has expressed his regret for his remissness which, I trust will not recur.

2. The Accounts of 1893 are in course of audit and the Report thereon will be submitted by the end of the current month.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedt. Servant,
J. H. Wilson
