CURRENT No. 1257

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O., dated 12th November 1894, Nos. 787, 788, Political.

ABSTRACT.—Stating that there is no objection to the grant to Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel H. P. Esmonde-White by the Travancore Darbar of exchange compensation allowance.

READ—also the following papers:—

From H. B. GRIGG, Esq., M.A., C.I.E., Resident in Travancore and Cochin, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Cochin, 11th March 1895, Ref. on C. No. 639.

With reference to G.O., dated 12th November 1894, No. 787, Political, regarding the grant of exchange compensation allowance to Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel H. P. Esmonde-White, Darbar Physician, Travancore, I have the honour to submit, for the orders of Government, copy of a letter from the Diwan in which he asks for instructions on certain points connected with the grant of the allowance. As regards the point raised in paragraphs 1-4 of this letter, I have to observe that in G.O., dated 9th ultimo, No. 104, the Government has just decided that the compensation is payable to Colonel W. T. Brereton on his consolidated salary of Rs. 1,200. It seems to me therefore that the calculation should be made in Dr. White's case also on the same consolidated amount he draws, viz., Rs. 1,200.

2. In regard to paragraph 5 of the Diwan's letter I think that no deduction is to be made for remittances made prior to 11th February 1894 and the Sirkar may be authorized to pay Dr. White monthly the whole of the compensation due without reference to me. The question whether any remittance was made by Dr. White from 20th October 1894 up to date will, I presume, be referred to the Controller of Military Accounts for report.

ENCLOSURE.

From the Diwan of Travancore, to the British Resident in Travancore and Cochin, dated Trivandrum, 21st February 1895, No. 355-A.

Adverting to your office letters noted in the margin, I have the honour to state that the amount on which exchange compensation is

(1) Ref. on C. No. 3829, dated 29th November 1894.
(2) Ref. on C. No. 442-1895, dated 14th February 1895.
admissible in the case of Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel H. P. Esmonde-White is not mentioned in the Government order, while in the case of Colonel Brereton it was expressly laid down that allowance is payable only on Rs. 1,000: vide paragraph 2 of order, No. 6063, Military, printed with Madras G.O., No. 721, dated 19th October 1894.

2. I observe that the word "salary" is defined for the purpose of calculating compensation allowance in paragraph 11 of the rules printed with the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, Resolution, No. 3624-A, dated Simla, the 18th August 1893. I think it advisable therefore to obtain an authoritative ruling on the subject before payment is made.

3. The salary attached to the place of Darbar Physician was Rs. 1,000 until 1865, when Dr. H. M. Ross was granted an increase of Rs. 100 for the charge of the civil and lying-in hospitals (vide your office No. 1916, dated 21st November 1865). Dr. White's starting salary as Darbar Physician was, therefore, Rs. 1,100. He had an increase of Rs. 100 from the 16th August 1891 (vide your office No. 1558, dated 17th November 1891). He thus gets a consolidated pay of Rs. 1,200 a month at present.

15TH MAY 1895, Nos. 320, 321, POLITICAL.

4. In these circumstances, I request you will be good enough to let me know as early as convenient whether Dr. White's allowance as sanctioned by the Madras Government is to be on Rs. 1,000 or Rs. 1,200.

5. There are some other points of doubt in this connection which I should like to get cleared. It is stated by the Comptroller of Military Accounts that Dr. White has remitted £200 during the period from 1st April 1893 to 20th October 1894, and a sum of Rs. 301-5-5 has to be remitted to your treasury for adjustment on account of this remittance. Dr. White becomes entitled to exchange compensation from this Government only from 11th February 1894 (1st Mausi 1069). I shall thank you to inform me—

- (1) whether a deduction has to be made for remittances he made prior to that date;
- (2) whether any remittance was made by Dr. White for the period from 20th October 1894 to date and, if so, what further deduction has to be made; and
- (3) whether in future this Government may pay him monthly the whole of the compensation due without any deduction and without reference to you: vide paragraph 3 of the Government of India notification quoted above.

From the Controller of Military Accounts, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, the 23rd of April 1895, No. 344-G.

In returning your endorsement, No. 686, dated the 28th March 1895, with its annexures, I have the honour to state that Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel H. P. Esmonde-White, Darbar Physician, Travancore, would appear entitled to exchange compensation allowance on Rs. 1,200, which is stated to be the consolidated salary he is in receipt of from the Travancore Government, which this office is not in a position to verify.

2. Since 1st April 1893, Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel H. P. Esmonde-White has made only one family remittance through this office, i.e., for Rs. 2,865-10-9 (£200). This amount was paid into the Bank of Madras on the 27th February 1894 and remitted by this office by the mail of the 1st March 1894. No other family remittances have been made by him through this office.

ORDER—dated 15th May 1895, No. 320, Political.

His Excellency the Governor in Council has no objection to Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel H. P. Esmonde-White drawing exchange compensation allowance on Rs. 1,200. 2. As Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel Esmonde-White has made a family remittance since the date (11th February 1894) from which the Travancore Darbar granted him the allowance, the Resident will arrange for the adjustment which should be made on account of the remittance.

3. Future payments on account of exchange compensation allowance may be made to Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel Esmonde-White by the Travancore Darbar without reference to the Resident.
