G.O., dated 2nd April 1895, No. 292, Financial.

ABSTRACT.—Recording correspondence with the Government of India relating to the provision of funds from Provincial revenues for the construction of a Detention Hospital at Madras for the treatment of the sick of the garrison of Fort St. George, with a view to the transfer of the Women and Children's Hospital to the General Hospital.

READ—also the following papers:—

From Lieutenant-General C. M. CLARKE, Commanding the Forces, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Ootacamund, 2nd May 1895, No. 760-M.W.

With reference to correspondence ending with G.O., No. 292, Financial, of 2nd April 1895, I have the honour to forward a copy of letter, No. 1731-D, of 18th idem, from the Government of India, intimating that in addition to the cost of the detention hospital, with its auxiliary buildings at Madras, departmental charges will also have to be recovered from Provincial funds.

ENCLOSURE.

From the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces in Madras, dated Simla, 18th April 1895, No. 1731-D.

I am directed to invite attention to the correspondence ending with Military Department letter, No. 1401-D., dated 18th March 1895, to the address of the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Military Department, relating to the introduction of the scheme for the transfer of the present station hospital at Madras to the Civil Department and for the future treatment of the sick of the garrison of Fort St. George.

From the Government of Madras, Military Department, No. 7426, dated 30th Nov. 1894.
To the Government of Madras, Military Department, No. 1109-D, dated 2nd Mar. 1895.

It will be observed from the communications noted in the margin that the cost of constructing a detention hospital with its necessary auxiliary buildings is roughly estimated at Rs. 1,36,828, and that this amount is to be recovered from Provincial funds through Land Revenue head.

2. In this connection, I am to point out that the amount above referred to does not include departmental charges which are recoverable from the Local Government under paragraph 147, Chapter IV, Volume II, of the Public Works Code, and to state that they will also have to be recovered from Provincial funds.

No. 1072.

Referred to the Public Works Department for favour of remarks on the claim made by the Government of India.

ORDER—dated 11th June 1895, No. 446, Financial.

The departmental charges, at 24½ per cent. on the estimate of 1.37 lakhs, will impose an additional burden of .33 lakh on Provincial revenues, raising the total cost of the detention hospital to 1.70 lakhs.

2. On the understanding that no further contributions will be demanded, His Excellency the Governor in Council accepts the liability, the bulk of which will fall against the estimates of 1896-97.

3. The Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces is requested to be so good as to arrange for a formal budget being forwarded to the Financial Department by the 1st December 1895, showing the exact requirements in the current and ensuing official years, to enable the necessary provision being made under I. Land Revenue Adjustments.

4. Funds will then be allotted to meet the departmental charges payable on the actual expenditure on works in 1894-95, in case the existing grant of .30 lakh should prove insufficient.
