OFFICE NOTE.

The Superintendent, Government Press, submits that 50 cwts of antimony were indented on the Secretary of State, in the Annual Indent for 1895-96, vide office note, No. 3507, dated 22nd December 1894, and the full quantity was shipped from England per S. S. Dunera, for this office, but only half of the quantity (viz. 25 cwt) was landed. The Presidency Port officer has informed the undersigned that he would deduct the cost of the short landed article from the freight due to the above vessel.

2. As the quantity now received will meet the requirements of the Press only up to 1st November 1895, and the Type Foundry establishment of 7 men and boys will be idling from that date until the next annual supply is received about May 1896, the Superintendent submits a supplemental indent in the
