SIR,

I have the honor to forward for transmission to the British Museum, London, a case containing the books marked by the Librarian in the catalogues for the last two quarters of 1894 excepting "Tavasilal Vajimal" an Arabic work published at Calicut. The Lithographer having failed to respond to this office requisition sent through the District Registrar of Assurances, Calicut and the latter officer having informed me that the Printer has refused to receive even my last (third) reminder, I have requested the District Registrar to take immediate action to prosecute the lithographer for non-delivery of the Arabic work in question which he is bound to supply under clause 6 Section 9 of Act X of 1890. to the Museum Library.

A Complete copy of the revised edition of "Biographies of Telugu Poets" marked of Lord Cross' Des of the Catalogue for the third quarter
