Proceedings of the Madras Government

Read the following

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue) of 8th June 1895. Fort No. 800 Mis. for letter from the Collector of this date of 1st June 1895 No. 596¹ requesting permission to hand over charge to Mr. Lushington the District Forest Officer at Bezwada instead of at Masulipatam.

Resolution:

Submitted to Government with the recommendation that in the circumstances stated, sanction may be accorded under Article 67 of the Civil Service Regulations to hand over charge of the District Forest Officer at Bezwada instead of at Masulipatam.

2. In anticipation of the sanction of Government, the Collector will be authorised to instruct his acting District Forest Officer to deliver over charge to Mr. A. W. Lushington at Bezwada.

3. The Board would take this opportunity of requesting that it may in future be empowered to pass orders on cases of this nature without reference to Government for sanction. Under the note to Article No 67, Civil Service Regulations, Collectors are empowered to issue such orders in respect of their Sub-divisional Officers and the Inspector General of Police exercises similar powers in regard to Police Officers serving under him: by analogy the Board should be permitted to authorise such transfers in the case of all Forest-Officers.
 The alteration will apparently entail a reference to the Government of India and the Board requests that this may be done. The Board's reply to G.O. 49 Revenue dated 22nd January 1894 will be submitted shortly.

Order

Order thereon 10th July 1895 No 2737.

The Board's recommendation contained in para 1 of its Proceedings read above is accepted and the instructions issued by it in para 2 are approved.

2. As regards the request contained in para 3. The Government of India will be addressed in view to empowering the Board of Revenue, in all its Departments, to sanction under Article 67 of the Civil Service Regulations, transfers of charge of Officers, elsewhere than at their head-quarters, by Officers subordinate to the Board.
