To

The Chief Secretary to Government,
Cotacamund.

Sir,

With reference to the enclosed Bill from the Revenue officer, Municipal Commission, Madras, I have the honor to request that orders may be issued for the payment of the amount of the Bill which I did not include in the Budget Estimate for 1895-96, as I was not aware of the fact that provision should be previously made in the Budget Estimate for the payment of House, Water, and Lighting Taxes in respect of the Government Building - a portion of the Old High Court Buildings - in my charge, the Office of the Tamil Translator to Government having been in a private dwelling house for several years.

I have the honor to be,
