From

REV. S. MORLEY, M.A.,

BISHOP'S CHAPLAIN,

To

THE HONORABLE THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Ootacamund.

SIR,

I have the honor, by desire of the Right Reverend the Bishop, to submit the following case and to ask that the Reverend C. H. Mealden may be exempted from the operation of Rule 1159 Civil Service Regulations which provides that "a daily allowance may not be drawn for more than ten days of a halt at one place."

Mr Mealden's duties as Chaplain of Mysore and Mercara take him each month from September to May inclusive, to Mercara and Bamboos. He has also other outstations in Mysore District. He sometimes makes his Coorg visit on the last ten days of one month and the first ten days of the next, thereby saving time in travelling, and saving Government Rupees 98 " 5 " 4. This arrangement occasionally gives him a Sunday for outstations which he could not otherwise visit.

A refund of Rupees 75 " 0 " 0 is demanded by the Accountant General because Mr Mealden has thrown two visits into one.

Under these circumstances Mr Mealden prays that he may sometimes take the last or ten days of one month and the first seven or ten days of the next month in one visit, and be allowed to draw halting allowance for the whole, as if they were two separate monthly visits.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. Evelyn
Bishop's Chaplain.

Sir,

With reference to your endorsement no. 1614, dated the 12th July 1895, I have the honour to observe that the case of the Rev. C. H. Malden does not appear to be covered by Article 1159 Civil Service Regulations. He has no camp equipage (condition a), and he is not put to extra expense - rather the contrary - (condition b). It seems however open to Government to obtain a general exemption ^{for him} under Article 1162.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,
Your most obed^t servant,

J. Harrison

For the reasons given by the
A. G. special exemption under art 1159 cannot be allowed, but the saving of some Rs 15 a month for 9 months seems worth to warrant an application to the G. of I for general exemption under art 1162.

MS

I do not think we could possibly make out a case wh. could justify India in adding another class of exemptions under art. 1162.
I would leave matters as they are - & leave Mr. Malden to the operation of the ordinary rules.

The case does not appear to be one for special or for general exemption from article 1159 of the C. S. R.

The Chaplain of Mercara & Mysore has to visit the former station once in each of nine months but it was not apparently intended that a visit extending over the end of one month and the beginning of the next should count as two visits for two months.
