FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

CURRENT No. 2432, of 1894.

NOTE FOR THE Mr. Sec. Secretary
through Secy. Assistant.

The Govt. in its order of the 14th November 1894, No. 2692, having decided that the distribution of copies of ^(and others) India Acts should be extended to Talukdars, Deputy Talukdars, Stationary Sub-Magistrates & Sherikdar-Magistrates, the Govt. of India was requested by letter of the same date, No. 2693, to increase, in future, the supply by 500 additional copies.

From C. No. 2432, however, it is clear that the Govt. of India is sending us only the usual number of copies viz. 385. These have not arrived yet. But it will be evident that the additional distribution contemplated in the above quoted order cannot be effected without the additional 500 copies applied for.

It is, however, submitted that District Magistrates have been hitherto furnished with a certain number.

number of the Acts up to ~~Act~~ ~~X~~ of 1894, and for purposes of binding, as also for other purposes, it appears to be necessary that, if additional copies of the Acts ~~XI~~ to ~~XV~~ are supplied, a similar extra number of copies of the Acts ~~I~~ to ~~X~~ should be furnished to render the sets complete but this cannot be accomplished ^{unless} the Govt. of India contribute to the extra no. if in stock.

In these circumstances, Orders are requested whether the supply of additional copies of Acts ^{sanctioned} ~~proposed~~ for distribution in the G.O. referred to,
may not commence from the first Act of 1895 and in future.

If U.S. is pleased to approve of this measure the copies of the Acts ~~XI~~ to ~~XV~~ expected from India will be distributed on the old plan no further application need be made for the extra copies.
