From—H. J. S. COTTON, Esq., C.S.I., Chief Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Political Department.

To—The Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department.

WITH reference to the letter from the Home Department, No. 515, dated the 15th June last, enquiring what the average annual expenditure is in sending from the Andamans to their homes, via Calcutta, released convicts who belong to the Bombay Presidency, I am directed to say that neither in the office of the Accountant General, Bengal, nor in that of the Commissioner of Police, Calcutta, is any distinct account, province by province, kept of the expenditure incurred in sending released convicts from the Andamans to their homes. The Commissioner of Police, Calcutta, however, reports that released convicts belonging to the Bombay Presidency, so far as can be ascertained from the copies of their descriptive rolls, were in most cases sent as far as Jabbalpore by this Government, and that the expenses for the transmission of 60 such ex-convicts with their wives and children amounted to Rs 11-8-9 during the past official year.

THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

Calcutta, the 28th November 1894.

SIR,

WITH reference to the correspondence ending with your letter marginally noted, I am to say that the Government of India have decided that released convicts from the Andamans belonging to the Bombay Presidency shall be sent to their homes by way of Madras instead of through Calcutta as at present; and I am to request that the necessary steps may be taken to give effect to this arrangement.

2. I am to observe that these orders will involve a slight annual charge on the revenues of the Madras Presidency, as will be seen from the letter from the Government of Bengal, No. 816-P. D., dated the 17th September 1894, a copy of which is enclosed for the information of His Excellency in Council.

As inter-provincial adjustments are not allowed, except when administrative changes occasion a transfer of charges of considerable amount from one Province to another, the Government of India regret that they are unable to relieve the Madras Presidency from liability to this small expenditure.

3. I am to add, with reference to the remark contained in paragraph 2 of your letter, that the charges incurred by the Government of Madras on account of transportation of convicts belonging to other Provinces are already large (amounting in 1892 to more than Rs. 5,000), that this payment is part of the existing Financial Contract with the Government of Madras and was provided for in its terms.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

L. M. THORNTON,
Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

Order

2 of G.O. 31-5-92 No. 594 Ind

Up to the end of 1891, this Govt. used to recover the net charges paid on behalf of other Govts.
[These pages marked in the original of G.O. 1120 of 25 Oct. 1892] On the revision of the contract in 1892, the Govt. of India decided to abolish the system of Inter-provincial adjustments [paras 8 to 10, of Resolution in G.O.
of 1-12-91 No. 1261 (page 2)] but the average recoveries during the 5 preceding years amounting to Rs. 32 were added to the contract assignment, which now stands at Rs. 32.54. The Govt. of India did not communicate the details of this sum of .32, but as it was stated to be the average of the actuals, there is no doubt that India's statement is correct.
