The claim cannot be admitted. It is observed that the Madras Army List for each quarter used to be corrected up to the last day of the preceding quarter, but this cannot alter the fact that the List ~~received on the~~ issued in 25th April was dated "Adjutant-General's Office, 1st April" and that it was recognised by the Press itself (vide its entry on the back of the cover of bound copies) as that for the 2nd quarter of 1895. ~~From~~ In the circular from the Secretary of the Press received by Government last Novr. and disposed of in G.O. 29. 11. 94, No. 1041 Financial it was clearly stated that the Quarterly India Army List wou take the place of the Madr

List

List as an official publication from the 31st March 1895.

The Secretary is mistaken as regards the Indian Army List. There was an issue for April 1895, ~~though~~ although it was somewhat late.

It seems very probable that the issue of the Quarterly Army List arose through an ~~the~~ oversight in the L A Press, and the Secy seems now to be trying to make the best case that he can.

FOR ORDERS.

It is submitted that the L. A. Press claim should not be admitted. It is true that the Madras Army List for each quarter used to be corrected up to the last day of each quarter, but this cannot alter the fact that the List received on the 25th April (vide bound copy in the file) was dated ~~1st April from~~ "Adjutant-General's Office, 1st April" and that it was recognised by the Press itself (vide entry on the back of the cover) as that for the 2nd quarter of 1895. Please see also the circular from the Secretary of the Press in G.O. of 29. 11. 94, No. 1041 Financial, where it was clearly stated that the ~~Indian~~ Quarterly India Army List would take the place of the Madras List as an official publication from the 31st March of the Madras Army Lists. Had it been dated 31st March instead of 1st April the Accts Genl's office would have had no plea to take exception to the bill. As it is the last issue of the Madras Army List belongs it will be seen to the quarter before the 1st April/95, and the L. A. Press was, it is submitted, fully justified in printing & circulating it. If the Quarterly Indian Army List for 1st April was also supplied to officers who had hitherto been getting only the Madras Army List that is evidently due to mismanagement on the part of the Military Dept. As however the former was not supplied till about two months after the latter had been in the hands of officers there was in fact real utility in the Madras Army List having issued as it did.

In letter d/ 10th May 1894, No. 1370 A, the Govt of India stated that it had been decided to discontinue the Madras Army List from 1st April 1895. As the last issue of the Madras Army List is dated 1st April 1895 the Acctt General objects to pass the bill of the Lawrence Asylum Press for supplying officers with it. Sir,

1. I have the honor to forward for your perusal and orders copies of Correspondence as per margin that has passed between this office and the Accountant General in respect to a charge made under orders of Government Army List, Confidential No. 3275 of the 28th May '94, for Army Lists, Quarterly and Monthly, corrected to the 31st March '95 on copy sent to this Press by

by the Adjutant General and supplied to officers under the several orders sanctioning issues at the cost of the State.

2. It will be observed

(a) That the Lists in question (Quarterly and Monthly) are corrected to the 31st March and are practically therefore issues of that month, though dated 1st April

(b) The corrections were supplied by Adjutant General of this Presidency who furnished also a notice of discontinuance from the 1st April '95 to be inserted in those issues, to the effect that they would cease to be supplied by the Press from 1st April '95

(c) From a Post Card, copy accompanying it would appear that Bengal is not prepared to furnish the Quarterly Army List for the three Presidencies until 1st July 1895.

3. Under the above explanation I would respectfully request that the Accountant General may be instructed to pay to the Press the amount he has disallowed from its bill on account of the free issues to the 31st March '95, issued on 1st April 1895, which issues have been duly made to and acknowledged by the various officers concerned.

Sir

The only order received in this Office on this Subject is Military Department No. 3275 of the 28th May 94 which States that the Army Lists will cease to be published in Madras Bombay from the 1st April 95. Those now charged for are corrected upto 31st March 95 on Copy sent to the Press by the Adjutant General Madras Army and are issues to the 31st March, not for April 1895 as assumed apparently in the Memo. The publications have ceased to be printed here from the 1st April 95, see notice in the last issue to 31st March 95 approved by the Accountant General
