EXPLANATORY REMARKS.

(a) A provision of Rs. 640 has been made under Establishments in the budget estimate as representing the cost of the additional establishment, which it is found necessary to employ for carrying on the work of the Birth, Death and Marriage department efficiently. Separate proposals on this subject will be submitted at once for the sanction of Government. An additional provision of Rs. 280 has been included in the revised estimate for the pay of this establishment from 1st November 1895. The revision of the establishment in the Birth, Death and Marriage department of the Inspector-General's office was taken up after the scheme for the grading of the staff of Registrars and Sub-Registrars was submitted. An almirah was purchased in 1894-95, but an additional almirah is required for the increasing records of the department.

(b) Provision is made for the purchase of an additional almirah for preserving records and returns.

(c) Provision is made for binding charges, as it is proposed to bind into volumes the Birth, Death and Marriage returns and certificates which are kept in bundles.
