To

The Chief Secretary to Government
Ootacamund.

Sir,

I have the honor to request that Government will be pleased to grant me an additional allotment of Rs 2805 for the current year as the actual expenditure is likely to exceed the Budget grant by that amount.

2. In passing the Estimate under the minor head "Salaries", the Government deducted a sum of Rs 2395 as probable savings. I find however that the savings will be only Rs 900. A sum of Rs 1495 has thus to be now added. Under "Establishment" Hospital Assistants. provision was made for 1 First Class and 1 Second Class Hospital Assistant. The latter however was promoted to First Class with effect from 30th June last and though he has since been transferred to Malabar, his successor is a First Class Subordinate. The provision under this head has thus to be increased by Rs 160.

3. Owing to unforeseen changes in the Office of Resident and the death of H. H. the Rajah of Cochin necessitating the Resident's frequent visits to Cochin and in view of H. E. the Governor's trip to Periyar, the travelling allowance of Officers is likely to exceed the Budget allotment by
