Major-General C. J. JENNINGS.

A. S. COWDELL, Esq.

D. HOOPER, Esq.

E. HALDWELL, Esq.

G. HAMNETT, Esq., C. I. E.

Reverend A. ACHESON WILLIAMS, M. A.

Reverend R. H. DURHAM, D. D.

Reverend C. BIOLLEY.

Mr. C. DAVIES, Honorary Secretary.

REPORT.

The work of the Society was carried on quietly during the year under review; the amount collected being Rs. 55 less than that of the previous year. This difference is chiefly due to members having died or left the station, among whom the society regrets the loss of friends who ever gave willing and ready assistance.

The committee was however able to give relief to 672 local paupers and 82 occasional paupers. It was also able to afford aid to, and send down to the plains, 59 persons to join their relatives, or to find such employment as they could undertake.

2. The credit balance at the beginning of the year was Rs. 363-14-9 as compared with Rs. 619-7-0 in January 1893. The Committee received during the year, from Government, the usual annual grant of Rs. 300; and from donations, subscriptions, &c., Rs. 1,476-11-1, making a total of Rs. 1,840-10-0 as against Rs. 2,151-5-9 realized in 1893; of this amount Rs. 1,522-1-3, were spent under the heads shown in the statement of disbursements, thus leaving a balance credit on the 1st January 1895 of Rs. 318-8-9.

3. The Women's Workshop and Alms-house were put in repair during the year.

4. The Alms-house is occupied by 4 widows who are employed in the Women's Workshop. When work is scarce and their weekly earnings fall below the average, they are afforded relief by the Friend-in-Need Society.

5. The "Home for Indigent Travellers" afforded shelter to 60 persons, and a sum of Rs. 16-8-0, was realized from those who had the means to pay for the accommodation provided in the Home; 41 meals were supplied gratis to indigent Travellers.

6. While thanking both donors and subscribers for the help afforded to the Committee to carry out the work entrusted to it, the Committee cannot refrain from once more appealing to all who have benefitted by a residence on the Nilgiris to contribute to the funds of the Society, so that its usefulness may be extended more widely than it has been during the last few years.

N.B.—(a) Donations. (b) Withdrawn.

The object of the Society is to afford relief to the deserving poor of all classes, European, East-Indian, Christian, Mahomedan, Hindu and Pariah, and to assist those who cannot find employment on the hills, to return to the low country, to obtain a livelihood, or join their relations there.

Residents and Visitors are requested not to afford indiscriminate relief to casual beggars presenting themselves at their houses, but to send them on to the Honorary Secretary of the Society who will enquire into their case and relieve them as may be necessary. To enable the Society to carry on this work, both Residents and Visitors are earnestly solicited to contribute to the funds of the Society by donations or monthly subscriptions.

2. The Honorary Secretary, assisted by one member of the Committee in rotation, undertakes the payment of the poor enrolled on the books of the Society, which is made once a fortnight at the Home for Indigent Travellers.

3. The Committee meets once a month to pass the accounts and dispose of such other business as may be laid before it.

Rules and Regulations for the Alms-house attached to the Women's Workshop of the Friend-in-Need Society at Ootacamund.

The Alms-house is intended to provide free accommodation for poor European and Eurasian Widows who may be employed in the Women's Workshop of the Friend-in-Need Society, and who may be recommended for admission into the home by the Lady Secretary of the Workshop to the Committee of the Friend-in-Need Society.

STATEMENT WITH DITTO.

PAPERS NOT FILED UP, BEING MEANT FOR DESPATCH IN ORIGINAL.

2. The Committee will consider such recommendations and pass such orders thereon as it may deem necessary on the merits of each case. Upon receipt of such orders, the person or persons named therein will be admitted into the Alms-house.

3. No woman will be admitted who is found to be suffering from any infectious disease or who is known to be leading an irregular life.

4. No woman who has left the Home, without the permission of the Superintendent of the Women's Workshop, or has been expelled for misconduct, shall be re-admitted except under the special orders of the Committee of the Friend-in-Need Society.

5. A woman who may be incapacitated for work in the Workshop, by ill-health or other cause, will not be permitted to occupy the Alms-house permanently unless specially recommended by the Ladies' Committee and subject to the approval of the Committee of the Friend-in-Need Society.

6. No woman having children will be permitted to leave the children in the Alms-house upon her being expelled or removed from the Home.

7. The children of women who may die in the Alms-house will have no claim upon the Committee for support or for residence in the Alms-house, but the Committee will endeavour to get such children, as have no friends or relatives to take charge of them, admitted into some Orphanage or other Charitable Institution.

8. Any inmate wilfully damaging the Alms-house in any way will be held responsible therefor, and be required to make good the expense incurred for repairing such damage and will be liable to removal, if considered desirable by the Committee.

Rules for the Friend-in-Need Society's "Home for Indigent Travellers."

1. Every traveller on entering the "Home" shall insert his name, profession, &c., in a book kept for that purpose, promising to conform to the Rules of the same.

2. A Fee of four annas to be charged for each person occupying a room or part of a room in the "Home", unless remitted by the Secretary; and no traveller to remain longer than three days without the express sanction of the Secretary.

3. No traveller is to occupy more than one room, the fee for the same being payable in advance.

4. Every traveller will be held responsible for any damage done to the room or furniture during the occupation of it.

5. Any traveller arriving in the night at the "Home" shall be admitted, but notice of the same shall be forwarded to the Secretary early the following morning.

6. A Peon shall be kept, on a salary determined upon by the Committee.

7. No improper language or disorderly conduct shall be permitted.

8. No liquor of any description shall be supplied to travellers, nor shall spirits of any kind be consumed in the "Home."

(By order of the Committee.)

A. J. O'FLYNN,

Honorary Secretary.
