From

Collector of Bellary

To

The Chief Secretary to Government
Public Department
Madras

Sir, I have the honor to forward for the favourable consideration of Government a request on the part of the newly formed Friend-in-need Society of Bellary, for the same consideration and grant-in-aid as are accorded to the same Society in Madras.

2. The need of such an institution has been universally recognized in Bellary. There is much distress among the poorer resident Eurasians and many destitute Eurasians and Europeans pass through the place, as many as 36 being relieved in 1893 by the District and Deputy Magistrates. All such cases will in future be sent to the Society.

3. I enclose also a copy of the Rules whence it may be seen that there is a strong and representative Committee.

I have the honor to be Sir

Sir, With reference to G.O. No 2513 Public, I have the honor to state that Rs 64-10-6 were expended on account of the 36 persons referred to in 1893, and that the average sum spent for a similar purpose during the past 3 years was Rs 33-a-a.

2. Government will see of course that this is no criterion of the number of "loafers" passing through Bellary, as numbers of them prefer the local clergymen to the local Magistrates.

FOR ORDERS.

This is an application from the newly formed Trindin and Society of Bellary for a grant-in-aid from Govt similar in proportion to that given to the Society in Madras. The latter receives a moiety of the local subscriptions not exceeding Rs 12000 per annum. The case of a Society at a large Presidency town is exceptional, but a similar ~~arrangement~~ at Ootacamund receives a grant of Rs 300. This is however based on the average of three years charges not purely local. From para. 3 of G.O. of 16 July 1878 it will be seen that these charges are connected with pauper travellers. District Magistrates were already empowered to relieve pauper travellers under the orders quoted in the margin, & Govt in the case of Ootacamund appears to have undertaken to relieve the Society of these charges only. As the scope of the objects of the Bellamy Society is somewhat limited, it is questionable whether any assistance should be given. If after the experience of a few years it is found that the charges on account of vagrants are a burden to the Society Govt aid to that extent may then perhaps be given.

If the request is complied with there will probably be other similar ones from other towns which could not well be refused.

30/11/94
There is no doubt that in a large place like Bellamy where there is a large population has been for a long while an important military garrison there must be many disturbances. Inevitably a some expenses in the same plight, but if aid is granted in this case it will be with as a precedent and it seems doubtful whether things are sufficiently ripe to justify the consideration of the giving of pecuniary aid. Should Govt. feel disposed to afford it. In: I remember might be asked what was paid for the ship of the 36 people Summ. offered to try his best and what the average amount disbursed by Govt on this account say for the past three years has been. Then at any rate might be made over to the Society on the condition that vagrants are not to be in future relieved from Govt funds or a part of a little more might be made.
