Despatch from the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department (Salaries, Establishments, &c.—Land Revenue), to the Right Hon'ble Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, dated Simla, the 16th July 1895, No. 196.

With reference to the despatches noted in the margin concerning the pay and advances of Mr. Moberly as Special Settlement Officer, Malabar and South Chara, we have the honour to forward the accompanying letter from the Government of Madras, No. 382 (Public), dated 13th May 1895, with which is submitted a memorial from Mr. Moberly praying for a reconsideration of the orders contained in your despatch, No. 143, dated 11th October 1894, declining to sanction any addition to the allowances already drawn by him.

2. It will be seen from the papers that Mr. Moberly, between 16th July 1892, the date on which he took up the duties of Special Settlement Officer, and the 16th August 1894, the date on which he relinquished them, drew Rs. 6,173-12-2 less than was drawn by Mr. E. C. Rawson, his immediate junior in the regular line, during the same period, and in order to compensate him for this and for other loss which he claims to have suffered, it is recommended by the Local Government that a payment of Rs. 7,000 may be made to him.

3. We are not prepared to support the recommendation, but in view of the distinct pledge given him by the Government of Madras, that he should not be a loser by his employment on settlement duty, we would ask your sanction to the reimbursement to Mr. Moberly of the amount which he is admitted to have lost—viz., Rs. 6,173-12-2.

Despatch from the Right Hon'ble Lord GEORGE HAMILTON, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India Office, London, 29th August 1895, No. 92, Revenue.

I have to acknowledge the receipt of the letter of your Excellency's Government, in the Finance and Commerce Department, No. 196, dated 16th July last, and to inform you that in all the circumstances of the case your proposal is sanctioned that a sum of Rs. 6,173-12-2 shall be paid to Mr. Moberly as an addition to the allowances drawn by him while Special Settlement Officer, Malabar and South Canara.

Endorsement—dated 7th October 1895, No. 2865—205-3.

Copy, with copy of despatch to the Secretary of State, No. 196, dated 16th July 1895, forwarded to the Government of Madras for information with reference to its letter, No. 382, Financial, dated 13th May 1895.

LETTER—to the Secretary to the Government of India, Revenue and Agricultural Department, dated Ootacamund, 13th May 1895, No. 382, Financial.

With reference to the correspondence ending with Mr. MacLagan's endorsement of the 16th November 1894, No. 3346-62, I am directed to forward the accompanying memorial, addressed to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India by Mr. H. Moberly, I.C.S., in which he prays for a reconsideration of the orders contained in paragraph 3 of the Right Honourable Mr. Fowler's despatch of the 11th October last, No. 143, Revenue, refusing to sanction any addition to the allowances already received by him.

2. Mr. Moberly's case has been fully dealt with in my letter of the 24th January 1894, No. 61, addressed to the Finance and Commerce Department of the Government of India, and his present memorial calls for but few remarks.

3. He is correct in stating (paragraph 5 of the memorial) that the sum of Rupees 5,564 was arrived at by the Government of India in its despatch No. 158, dated 12th June 1894, by taking the salary drawn by him as Special Settlement-officer and that of his immediate junior Mr. E. C. Rawson, between the 16th July 1892 and the 15th September 1894. This comparison was based on the tabular statement in paragraph 7 of my letter quoted in paragraph 2 supra. The figures for the last few months in that statement were, however, so far as Mr. Rawson was concerned, conjectural, since they were based on the assumption that his salary would remain at the same figure as in January 1894. Mr. Moberly reverted to the regular line on the 17th August 1894, on which date he assumed charge of the appointment of Acting Collector of Malabar. The Accountant-General has now furnished particulars of the salary, including exchange compensation allowance, drawn by Messrs. Moberly and Rawson between the 1st April 1893 and the 16th August 1894, and the statement given in my letter of January 1894, altered accordingly, stands as follows:—

Periods.	Salary drawn by Mr. Rawson.	Salary drawn by Mr. Moberly.
16th July 1892 to 15th February 1893	Rs. 7,290 13 3	Rs. 9,100 0 0
16th February 1893 to 15th March 1893	1,275 1 0	1,300 0 0
16th March 1893 to 31st March 1893	971 7 4	650 0 0
1st April 1893 to 16th August 1894 (including exchange compensation allowance)	33,658 12 10	25,972 6 3
Total	43,196 2 5	37,022 6 3

* As in paragraph 7 of No. 61, Financial, dated 24th January 1894.
† Taken as half a month.

4. It will be observed that Mr. Moberly, between the 16th July 1892, the date on which he took up the duties of Special Settlement-officer, and the 16th August 1894, the date upon which he relinquished them, drew Rs. 6,173-12-2 less than his immediate junior Mr. E. C. Rawson did in the same period. This is a lower figure than that (Rs. 7,000, exclusive of exchange compensation allowance) at which he places his loss (paragraph 6 of the memorial). But, in arriving at this figure, Mr. Moberly has included the loss alleged to have been sustained by his having been treated under rules, which have lately been altered, as a Second-grade Collector and as a junior officer after his return to the regular line. His alleged losses on this account have already been considered by His Excellency the Governor in Council, who decided that Mr. Moberly's case could not receive special treatment and that it had been correctly dealt with under existing rules by the Accountant-General. It is, in fact, impossible to state for how long Mr. Moberly, had he remained in the regular line, would have been a Second-grade or a First-grade officer under the rules in force prior to last December and the fairest method is that which has been adopted by this Government, viz., comparing his emoluments with those of his immediate junior.

5. I am, however, to observe that while in the Settlement Department, where he gave complete satisfaction, Mr. Moberly was performing more arduous and important work than Mr. Rawson performed out of it, before the latter obtained promotion to an Acting Judgeship or Collectorate and that therefore Mr. Moberly should have been better, not worse, paid than his junior.

6. His Excellency the Governor in Council, in consideration of all the circumstances of the case, strongly urges the payment to Mr. Moberly of not less than Rs. 7,000 and I am to express the hope that the Government of India will support this recommendation.
