ACT No. XIII OF 1895.

PASSED BY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.
(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 25th July, 1895.)

An Act to amend sections 632 and 652 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend sections 632 and 652 of the Code of Civil Procedure; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. In section 632 of the said Code, after the word
“chapter” the words and figures “and in section
652” shall be added.

Amendment
of section
632, Act
XIV, 1882.

2. To section 652 of the said Code the following shall be added, namely:—

Amendment
of section
652, Act
XIV, 1882.

“Notwithstanding anything in this Code contained, any High Court established under the said Act for establishing High Courts of Judicature in India
may make such rules consistent with the Letters Patent establishing it to regulate its own procedure in the exercise of its original civil jurisdiction, as it shall think fit.

“All such rules shall be published in the local official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.”

ACT No. IX OF 1895.

PASSED BY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

(Received the assent of His Excellency the Governor-General on the 7th March 1895.)

An Act to confer on Presidency Magistrates and District Magistrates certain powers and authorities in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals.

33 & 34 Vict.,
c. 52. WHEREAS by the Extradition Act, 1870, it is, among other things, enacted that the said Act, when applied by Order in Council, shall, unless it is otherwise provided by such order, extend to every British possession, but with the following among other modifications, namely:—

No warrant of a Secretary of State shall be required, and all powers vested in, or acts authorised or required to be done under the said Act by, the Police Magistrate and the Secretary of State, or either of them, in relation to the surrender of a fugitive criminal, may be done by the Governor of the British possession alone;

And whereas by the said Act it is also enacted that, if by any law or ordinance made before or after the passing of the said Act by the Legislature of any British possession provision is made for carrying into effect within such possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in or are suspected of being in such possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any foreign State, or by any subsequent order either—suspend the operation within any such British possession of the said Act or any part thereof, so far as it relates to such foreign State, and so long as such law or ordinance continues in force there, and no longer, or direct that such law or ordinance, or any part thereof, shall have effect in such British possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the said Act;

[PRICE, 6 pies.]

And

And whereas the said Extradition Act, 1870, was amended by the Extradition Act, 1873, which enacted that that Act was to be construed as one with the said Act of 1870 and that the said two Acts might be cited together as the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873;

And whereas it is expedient to provide for the more convenient administration in British India of the said Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, by conferring on Presidency Magistrates and District Magistrates the like powers and authorities in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals as are by the said Acts vested in Police Magistrates and Justices of the Peace in the United Kingdom;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Extradition (India) Act, 1895; and

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Governor-General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, appoint in this behalf:

Provided that no such date shall be appointed until after Her Majesty has been pleased by Order in Council to direct that this Act shall have effect in British India as if it were part of the Extradition Act, 1870, and such Order has been published in the Gazette of India.

2. All powers vested in, and acts authorised or required to be done by, a Police Magistrate or any Justice of the Peace in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals in the United Kingdom under the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, are hereby vested in, and may in British India be exercised and done by, any Presidency Magistrate or District Magistrate in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals under the said Acts.

Powers of Police Magistrates and Justices of Peace under Imperial Acts conferred on Presidency and District Magistrates.

Act for S.A.

The Acts supplied by the Press are copies of the edition published in the Fort St. George Gazette.
Copies are received in this office also. As a rule
there are ^{some days} ~~none~~ received before the octavo size ^{copies} ~~edition~~ are received.

There is a slip from Sept.
The practice of sending collectors these "Gazette" copies of Acts seems to be an old one.

Since the copies of S. Acts at Cuddalore do seem to want them, these copies may be stopped.

OFFICE NOTE.

The Superintendent, Government Press, submits that Acts of India and Madras, in quarto size, are supplied to all collectors by the Press as per accompanying list. The same Acts, in octavo size, are also supplied to the collectors by the Librarian, Chief Secretariat. The collector of South Arcot enquires why the Acts are supplied twice, and the collector of Buddapah has returned to the Press 32 copies of Madras Act II of 1895, in octavo size, sent by the Librarian, Chief Secretariat, under G. O., 9th July 1895, No. 15, Financial, Misc. The Superintendent therefore solicits orders whether the quarto size sent by him may be discontinued.
