Madras.

Sir,

With reference to your memo sent us for perusal about Galconeri grammar of professors and students in Tamil we beg to inform you that we shall be very happy to undertake to sell that work if it is kept at hand.

Respecting your favour,

Yours faithfully,

OFFICE NOTE.

With reference to G.O., No. 806 Financial, dated 11th October 1895, the Superintendent solicits instructions regarding the following points:

(1) Whether this Tamil edition of Falconer's Manual of Midwifery is to be considered as an exception to the instruction given in G.O., No. 130 Public, dated 21st February 1891,

(2) If so, the undersigned submits that the selling price must be increased to allow for whatever publisher's commission the two firms referred to in No. 806 may desire to charge, as the 1 rupee fixed is the cost of production and honorarium only, and

(3) Whether the sale proceeds are to be credited to "Stationery and Printing" to recoup the cost of printing, or to be credited to the Countess of Dufferin Fund.
