Forest No. 1618 Mis. Routine.

READ the following letter from the Sub. Division Office Bellamalai, dated 13th December 1894, No.
1232 that the District Forest Officer Kurnool.

I have the honor to state that the Accountant General has objected to the exchange compensation allowance claimed by me amounting to Rs. 1, 00 2/3 - 7-10.

A portion of this allowance, was allowed by me whilst at Bangalore as a Acting District Forest Officer.
The bill was paid and passed by the Deputy Deputy Collector, and no objection raised then. Subsequently it was objected to by the Accountant-General forward of collectors certificate. This was duly obtained, and the remaining amount, was drawn in the Murusok District, and it was finally decided in Board's Proceedings no. 923, 12-7-94, that I was not entitled to the allowance. I, therefore, request to be exempted from refunding the above amount under the provisions of Board's Proceedings,

no. 354,
29-8-94.

Endorsement of J. A. Lodge, District
Forest Officer, Murusok, dated 17 November 1894. no. 2002 A.

Forwarded through the collector, Murusok, and conservator, Northern circle. My request has drawn no compensation allowance for the last four months, and is now called upon to refund the amount previously drawn in good faith. I think he is entitled to exemption from refund.

CHIEF SECRETARY

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE (LAND REVENUE).

READ—the following letter from T. W. RAWLINS, Esq., Accountant-General to the Government of Madras, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, dated Fort St. George, 28th March 1894, No. 807 :—

I have the honour to invite the special attention of the Board of Revenue to the new rule bearing upon the exchange compensation allowance which has lately been added as note 3 to article 41-A of the Civil Account Code that “the domicile of an officer born and educated in India who has never left the country is Indian, whatever his domicile of origin may have been”, and to request that the conditions therein laid down may be duly borne in mind if it has again to decide on an officer's domicile with a view to the payment to him of the allowance.

2. I have further to request that certificates of non-domicile already granted to officers under the Board of Revenue may be revised in the light of the above rule, and that it will be so good as to inform me, after making the necessary inquiries, which officers, if any, are not entitled to the exchange compensation allowance.

RESOLUTION—dated 20th April 1894, No. 166.

The Accountant-General's letter read above will be communicated to all Collectors for information and for such action as may be necessary.

2. With regard to paragraph 2 of the letter, the Board observes that the only officers to whom certificates of non-domicile have been issued are :—

- (3) „ Marshall, J. G. F., District Forest Officer, South Malabar.

- (6) „ Hearsey, T. N., Extra Assistant Conservator of Forests, Kurnool.
- (7) „ C. Clark, Registrar, Board's Office, Madras.

The Collectors concerned will be requested to report which of the officers (1 to 6) are not entitled to the Exchange Compensation allowance under the new rule quoted by the Accountant-General.

3. As regards Mr. Clark, No. (7) in the above list, the Board finds that the new rule does not affect his case.

Proceedings, dated 20th April 1894, No. 166 and Reminder dated 22nd instant, I have the honor to state that Mr. Eber Hardie does

2. A copy of his office note, dated 22nd December 1893, No. $\frac{3656}{1671}$ stating where he was born and educated and of my reply is submitted. I do not know whether he holds any rank or place in the British Government as suggested by me.

Enclosure

Office note from, C. Eber Hardie Esq., Assistant Secretary of the Straits Settlements, dated 22nd December 1893, No. $\frac{3656}{1671}$ to the Collector of Malabar.

In reference to your No. 27 on

C. No. $\frac{1344}{893}$, dated the 19th December 1893

I have to reply as follows:

(1) I was born in England and educated partly there and partly in Russia.

(2). My father's domicile at the time was England though he was travelling about Asia and the Straits Settlements, Ceylon and the Mediterranean ports. He happened to die in Russia.

(3). His occupation was that of a merchant. He also got a fixed monthly sum from the Government, to supply European goods of all sorts, a part of which was contributed to him as pension. None of my father's people are domiciled in Russia or out of England and Germany though they have traded with Russia and the Straits for over half a century.

I have read over the Russian Laws and Sections 6-10 of domicile.

My father had no intention of domici-ciling himself in India. His death by sudden illness in India is a circumstance over which he had no control.

The only example that covers my father's case is Illustration F. Sec. 10, his father and himself having left Germany for political reasons and acquired a domicile in England. Came trading to the Straits.

Endorsement thereon, by H. Brasley Esq., ag. Collector of Malabar, dated 1st January 1894, C. No. ¹³⁷⁷/_{F. 93}.

I think this is a case which should go before Government. Will you therefore take steps to have it placed before Government?

Resolution

The papers read above will be forwarded to the Accountant General December 1893

with reference to Board's Proceedings, dated 20th April 1894, No. 166.

2. Of the officers mentioned in para 2 of that Board's Proceedings, it is reported that Messrs. Dever & Hardee and Harey are not entitled to the allowance. With reference to the former who is now on furlough, the collector remarks that he asked him to take steps to place his case before Government and that he does not know whether this has been done. The Board finds that there is no information as to the subject in its office except that contained in the list forwarded by the Accountant General with his letter dated 13th February 1894,
No. 381.

3. As regards Mr. Sheffield, the Collector states that he has been retired from the service and that the latter had no interest in it. I think he does not know where he was born.

 The Board is not aware of Mr. Sheffield's address and requests the accountant General to communicate with him direct in case the address is known to him.

4. The claims of the other Officers referred to in Board's Proceedings dated 20th April 1894, no. 166 are, it is reported, not affected by the rule quoted by the accountant General.
