Special Assistant Agent's Office

Godavari District

Polavaram, 21st December
1894

From

C. G. Spencer Esq^r

Special Assistant Agent

Godavari District.

To

The Government Agent

Godavari District.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that in Taduvaya, a Government village in Polavaram Division, a festival is celebrated in February - March every year in honor of God Siva for 5 days and that about 8000 pilgrims from Gornagudem and Ellore Taluks and the Nizams' Dominions resort to it and remain there till the close of the festival.

The temple of Siva and a fresh water temple called Bhadrakundam noted for its sacredness are situated at a distance of about one mile from Taduvaya village.

There are no trees at the place to give shelter to the pilgrims that resort to the festival and the pilgrims are therefore put to much inconvenience for want of shelter while they remain there.

2. The Deputy Tahsildar of Polavarani on a petition presented by the inhabitants of the village requesting that some sanitary arrangements ^{may} be made as in the case of other places where festivals are held, recommended that a sum of Rs 50 may be spent every year for erecting pandals so to afford shelter to the pilgrims in consideration of the distance from the village to the place where the festival is held.

3. Government in their proceedings

143 Financial
8.2.93 have sanctioned a sum of

Rs 50 for the sanitary arrangements at Pata Pattanam where also a Sivaratri festival is held.

4. From what the Dy. Tahsildar has stated I am inclined to think that the festival at Taduvaya which is about 40 miles from Pata Pattanam is of equal religious importance though not attended by as many pilgrims as that at Pata Pattanam.

5. Under the above circumstances I recommend that sanction for a sum of Rs 50 may be obtained from Government for making the necessary sanitary arrangements for the festival at Taduvaya also.

6. The village of Taduvaya was one of the places in the Agency where Cholera broke out last year. I think therefore that at least some latrines should be built and precautions taken against the outbreak of epidemics during the assemblage of large numbers of people in one locality.

I have so
(Signed) C. G. Spencer
Special Asst. Agent.

Ref: no ⁷²⁴ _{agency} of 1894.

Submitted to Government for favor of sanction through the

of Madras.
