large for the period the latter officer was on special duty was given as Rs 6912. 10. 11 and that between their Exchange Compensation allowance as Rs 773. 11. 8. These figures however do not agree with those sanctioned.

If therefore Government has no objection to my complying with Mr Moberly's desire, I request that I may be furnished with the details as arrived at by Government.

Mr Moberly also requests that he may be furnished with details of the amounts passed to Mr. Rawson as salary and Exchange Compensation Allowance during the period for which his claim is allowed.

This information is therefore also required.

I have the honor to be,
