The Society agreed to publish a revised edition if the same was subsidised by the Secy. of State. It estimated the cost at Rs. 15,187 if the book was revised in one volume & Rs. 1500 more if in 2 Vols.

The Director of Public Instruction, who was consulted, strongly supported the Society's claims to a subvention.

In replying to the Secy. of State's ^{Despatches} letter this Govt. supported the claims of the Society & suggested a grant of Rs. 5000 towards the expenses of the revised edition.

The Secy. of State approved of the work being entrusted to the Society and sanctioned the grant of Rs. 5000 as a charge against the Provincial revenues of this Govt. The Secy. of State also made over to the Society in London an interleaved copy of the dictionary with annotations & additions by the late Mr. Brown.

The Society now reports that it has engaged ^{M. R.} ~~the~~ Venkateswaram B.A. of the Presy. College as chief editor of the new edition. The fee agreed upon is Rs. 5000 - half of which will be paid when the work is half done & the remainder on two institutions.

This seems to be a fair arrangement & it is

please. 15/12/96

I would refuse to pay any portion until the whole work is done.
Govt. does not want to pay anything for half the work, but the sum agreed upon for the whole.

I don't know - we have helped the Society to bring the work out & this seems a good way of doing so. The Society may be trusted not to want
