From

J. C. Harrison Esquire; OFF. ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To

THE Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department.

SIR,

I have the honour to submit the following case for the orders of the Government of India.

M. R. J. Amaladoes Pillai at present 2^d Assistant, Mangalore College and acting Sub Assistant Inspector of Schools, Tuticorin Range joined the Educational Department in April 1872 and was one of the Teachers in the Government College, Salem. This college was transferred vide fo 590M A to the Municipality in October 1885, and 30-9-85

the Teacher was employed under the Municipality until the year 1893 when he again entered Government Service. The Director of Public Instruction, Madras enquired whether in the event of grant of furlough to T. Amalados Pillai, his leave allowance should be proportionately borne by the Municipality and Government

As under Article 849 Clause 2 Civil Service Regulations Government undertook to pay only pension and not leave allowances of Masters transferred to local bodies, and as the college did not contribute for leave allowances, I informed the Director that the leave allowance of the Officer is chargeable to the Municipality and Government according to the rule of proportions as defined in Article 56.

That is to say in the absence of any rule to the contrary, I applied the the Rule of Proportions in respect of leave allowances. I beg to enquire if I am right in so doing.
